

TENANT'S CONTENTS INSURANCE CHEAPER AT HOMELET

HomeLet, the UK's leading insurance specialist for the lettings industry, has released a brand new tenant's contents product. This new product is designed specifically to protect tenants, who can often neglect to insure their valuable possessions.

HomeLet's Managing Director John Boyle said: "HomeLet has been providing tenant's contents insurance for over a decade and we're constantly improving the products that we provide to our customers. That's why we've developed our new product, Tenant's Contents Insurance +, to ensure that we provide comprehensive cover at competitive prices.

"In light of recent crime figures and predictions of a 25 per cent increase in property crime Tenant's Contents insurance is one essential most people can't afford to be without."

"When compared to our existing tenant's contents product, Tenant's Contents Insurance + offers double the minimum cover at no additional cost. This is to ensure that tenants aren't under insured, as people can often underestimate the value of their contents."

Tenant's Contents Insurance + covers the policyholder and two additional tenants who are named on the tenancy agreement, making it ideal for professional sharers. This protects all of their contents against theft by forcible means, fire, lightning, earthquake or flooding and water leaks.

It also provides tenants with cover for accidental damage to their landlord's contents, building, fixtures and fittings up to the value of £2,500. This means that tenants don't have to worry about losing their deposit if an accident happens.

HomeLet can now also offer cheaper premiums for most areas, especially those which are considered a higher risk. This means that no matter where tenants live they have access to comprehensive cover at a more affordable price.
